1. Is the animal a service animal needed because of a legally recognized disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act? YES NO

If yes, state the tasks the animal has been trained to perform to assist with the legally recognized disability.

* Any person who knowingly and willfully misrepresents himself or herself as using a service animal and being qualified to use a service animal commits a misdemeanor of the second degree pursuant to Section 413.08(9), Florida Statutes. The Summit Owners Association, Inc. ("Association") will seek to prosecute any individual or individuals attempting such a misrepresentation.

2. Is the animal an emotional support animal needed to alleviate a previously identified condition? YES NO

If yes, you must request an accommodation because the Condominium is a NO PET property. In accordance with the Fair Housing Act, your request for accommodation from the no pet policy must be accompanied by a signed and dated document on letterhead or prescription form from a physician, psychiatrist, social worker, or other mental health professional who is your regular health care provider. The documentation from your regular health care provider must define the psychological condition in which the person suffers and state that the emotional support animal alleviates one or more issues associated with that condition. The Association has the right to verify such documentation.

Proof of Current Vaccinations must be provided. Vaccination document year _____

If available please provide a current picture of the animal.

The emotional support animal will be required to wear a 'registration band' on the collar during its stay, which will be provided upon check in and final registration with Security.

I hereby affirm that the information I provided to the Association is true to the best of my knowledge. I have received a copy of the Summit Rules for Service and Emotional Support Animals and I agree to abide by these rules. I understand failure to obey any rule is grounds for a fine and that, upon a repeat offense, additional fines may be imposed and the authorization to keep the animal on the Condominium property may be revoked.

I accept responsibility for any injuries or damages caused by the animal and release the Association of any responsibility for said injuries or damages.
